

The Sabbath Watchman

Vol. 34

Denver, Colorado, 1959

No. 1

North American Union Conference Session

"Camp Insmont"

Bailey, Colorado, July 5 to 12, 1959.

"O SING unto the Lord a new song; for He hath done marvelous things: His right hand, and His holy arm, hath gotten Him the victory:" . . . "Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favor her, yea, the set time, is come." Psalms 98:1; 102:13.

Believers attending the Conference

THOSE who were so favored to attend the North American Union Conference this year, have a song of thanksgiving on their lips and in their hearts. "Camp Insmont", beautifully nestled in the Rockies and surrounded by the grandeur of the mighty handiworks of the great Creator, was a fitting place to assemble as family of God. Remote from a distracting world, amidst the serenity of unspoiled nature, the spirit has unfettered access to the "river of life", symbolized by the sound of the gurgling and rushing brook below the Camp. In the distance the high peaks of the mountains, with specks steadfastness and mercy of our heavenly Father. Once before, in 1951, we were privileged to assemble on this place. Years have passed since. God's cause in America has passed through many severe conflicts, yet, praise the Lord, "His right hand, and His holy arm, hath gotten Him the victory." It was apparent right from the start of this year's Conference that God's cause stands more securely anchored than ever before.

What joy of reunion it was when car after car brought in the dear believers from coast to coast; what tears of happiness were shed to